

CERE – Seminar series, Fall 2010

Date	Speaker	Subject
Sept 6, 13.15-15.00 Samvetet	Laura Taylor North Carolina State University, USA	Policy challenges and the research response: Current trends in hedonic methods for estimating the benefits of environmental improvements, Lecture I
Sept 7, 13.15-15.00 Samvetet	Laura Taylor North Carolina State University, USA	Current trends in hedonic methods..., Lecture II
Sept 8, 13.15-15.00 Room 512k	Laura Taylor North Carolina State University, USA	Current trends in hedonic methods..., Lecture III
Sept 9, 13.15-15.00 Room 512k	Laura Taylor North Carolina State University, USA	Current trends in hedonic methods..., Lecture IV
Sept 15, 13.15 Room S310	Sevil Acar Istanbul Technical University, Turkey	Natural Resource Abundance and Its Impact on Development Prospects
Sept 22, 13.15 Room 512k	Christos Verouchis	WTP for Green Energy in Sweden and Europe
Sept 29, 13.15 S313	Karl-Gustaf Löfgren	Dynamic Cost Benefit Analysis of Large Projects: The Role of Capital Cost
Okt 6, 13.15 Room 512k	Jurate Jaraite	Did the EU ETS make a difference? A case study of Ireland and Lithuania
Okt 13, 13.15 Room 512k	Magnus Lindmark	Explaining Energy Intensity in Sweden 1900-2007
Okt 20 13.15	Lammertjan Dam University of Groningen, Holland	Bank Bailouts, Interventions, and Moral Hazard
Nov 10 13.15	Katarina Östberg	Valuing Benefits of Coastal Environment Improvements – Are Benefits Transferable?
Nov 17 13.15	Camilla Widmark, Dept. of Forest Economics, SLU	Forest Policy in Sweden - the General Consideration Paragraph and its Application in Swedish Forestry
Nov 24 13.15	Peichen Gong	Using Forest in Climate Policy
Dec 1 13.15	Kelly de Bruin	TBA
Dec 8 13.15	Lars Persson	TBA
Dec 15 13.15	Erik Brockwell	The Signalling Effect of Environmental and Health-Based Taxation for Public Policy: An Empirical Analysis